Hi Lauren,

Just following up with you on the Exhibit "D" document for the Wellington Plant to transfer the bond from Fidelity and Deposit Company of Maryland to Bond Safeguard Insurance Company. I have not yet received the document - can you update me on the status? As soon as I have this document I can forward it to our Director for signature and I can release the bond with Fidelity.

Thank you,
Angela Nance

Ok, great. He actually signed on the wrong line on the paper but it is signed. I hope it will be ok. He signed on the By: line instead of the Permittee line.

It looks like Roberto R. Denis signed the other documents...

One last question, on the document it says In Witness Whereof _____ the Permittee, What do I put in that blank? Is it the name of the person who signed the document?

Thanks,

In that case...just go ahead and leave it.

Thanks!

Ok, we do not have a seal for NEICO but only for NV Energy, Inc. Do you want us to put that one on or just leave it?

Hi Lauren,

If possible, please have a seal on the document. This document does not need to be notarized.

Thank you,

Angela,

My name is Lauren Moody and I work in the Risk Control Department at NV Energy, Inc. Tony Garcia has forwarded me the document that the State of Utah needs us to complete and sign in order to replace our Zurich Bond with the new Safeguard bond. I have a question before we send you the form back. Do we need to have a notary or seal on this document?

I wanted to ensure this is correct and complete before we send back to you. I appreciate all your help!

Thanks,

Subject: Wellington Bond Transfer

Hi Tony,

I received several documents for the transfer of the Wellington Preparation Plant bond from Fidelity and Deposit Company of Maryland to Bond Safeguard Insurance Company. The letter indicates that enclosed is a signed "Stipulation to Revise Reclamation Agreement" - this document was not included in the packet I received in the mail. I did receive all of the proper Affidavits of Qualification, Power of Attorney and new Bond Agreement - thank you for these documents.

Will you please complete the attached Exhibit "D" - Stipulation to Revise Reclamation Agreement and return to me as soon as possible so that I can continue to process this transfer.

Also, according to the Department of the Treasury - Bond Safeguard Insurance Company's underwriting limitation is $1,866,000. According to the Power of Attorney form the authorized amount is $6M. Do you know why there is a discrepancy?

Thank you,
